

TAFT STILL HALTS HOOK NOMINATION, MAY NAME NAGEL

New Opposition to Kansas
Judge Being Appointed to Bench of Highest Court.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Following an hour's session of the four lawyers in President Taft's Cabinet today, it became known that the proposed nomination of Judge William C. Hook of Kansas to the Supreme Court had been held and probably would not be sent to the Senate this afternoon as President Taft had intended.

According to Kansas at the White House to-day, the latest protests against Judge Hook have grown out of an Oklahoma case, in which an attempt was made to secure driving car and sleeping car privileges for negroes. The United States Court, Judge Hook concurring, decided that it was optional with the railroad to furnish these cars for negroes. Representative Anthony of Kansas told President Taft to-day that many negroes in his State had withdrawn their protests against Judge Hook.

Although friends of Judge Hook were not ready to-day to admit that the latest protests will prevent his nomination, it was said that President Taft has opened up the whole question again and that Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel and Senator Sutherland of Utah are again being considered.

Mr. Nagel was not present at the cabinet meeting to-day. It is well known that he has a strong advocate in Attorney-General Wickesham and other members of the President's official family.

KING OF DENMARK SUFFERS WITH LUNG FEVER ATTACK.

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Feb. 7.—An official bulletin was issued to-day by the physicians in attendance on King Frederick, who was last evening while out walking seized with a sudden illness. It says:

The King passed a satisfactory night. He aches well, but has a little fever arising from slight inflammation of the lungs.

Although no imminent danger is regarded as attached to King Frederick's illness, which is now said to be pneumonia, yet his condition is serious and is causing great anxiety among the Danish.

There were crowds of callers at the palace throughout the day.

Queen Louise is also indisposed. She is suffering from a bronchial affection.

VAULT BLEW OUT LIKE A VOLCANO

A fire that started in the cellar and swept through the first floor and part of the second at No. 21 Bond street, a six-story building occupied entirely by military concerns, did $300 damage at 7:30 o'clock this morning.

Palmhurst Brown was near the place when a vault blew out like the eruption of a volcano, and volumes of smoke began pouring from the center. The flames evidently had been smoldering for some time among the mats and packing cases. Valentine steel, nail cutters, compasses, compasses, compasses, and first doors.

Marion Edwards, a watchman for H. C. Clegg, a hat manufacturer, on the third floor, was still in the building when smoke began pouring into the rooms. He took to the fire escape, but when he got to the first floor balcony could lower the drop ladder. He could not be seen for the smoke, but his shouts attracted the firemen and he was taken down a ladder by them from Truck No. 8.

Chief Keston sent in a second alarm. Because of the smoke the firemen had to lie on their stomachs in the street and fight the blaze a part of the time. The rear of the building touches "Shibboleth Alley" and there was considerable excitement rounding up forty horses belonging to peddlers.

The blaze was confined to the cellar, ground floor and part of the one above, but the smoke damage throughout the building was great.

Have You a Talking Machine?

We have all the newest records. If you don't want to pay the prices of the Carousos and the Tetrazzini and the other bests, or if you want to vary them, you can lower the average cost to a mere trifle by helping yourself from our remarkable offering of records at 9¢, which is surely the lowest price ever quoted for a record to be used on any disc talking machine, whether it be a Victor or any other make. You may have operatic selections, and vocal and instrumental records galore, all of which originally cost 50¢ to 60¢.

And, of course, we can sell you the talking machine itself.

Have You a Player Piano?

We sell all the perforated music rolls for it at about half the price other department stores charge you.

Yet what we save you on the music rolls is a small matter compared with what we save you on the piano itself.
